ABOUT ME

Hi, I am Mandeep Singh from Chandigarh and I love learning new things and I also absorb things from others. I am a traveller, travel junkie and I have been programming from last 8 months.

I can not do everything but I can do something. I must not fail to do something that I can do.

PROFILE

A web designer with knowledge in HTML5, CSS3, Javascript and jQuery by creating and working for responsive web design.

Gained knowledge in front end frameworks like Bootstrap4 seeking a position to utilize the skills and abilities in an esteemed organization that offers professional growth.

Finding new ideas, while struck with problems.
